

Surf alone

med the Margarets*

I have said my goodbyes to the streets of your town
Don't you look so surprised

There were sweetness and light
There were low's there were high's
Don't you look so surprised

Today I smashed my mobile phone Because I need to be alone Unless I find myself I'm no-one

I'll be a stranger on the shore True rebels always surf alone
Today I smashed my mobile phone

The sun and the sea and the wind in my hair and peace everywhere

Coast after coast town after town and peace of mind

Nothing's broken.

*) Sangen er skrevet av L. Berg, R. Berg, Giskeødegård, Larsen og Rinde, og finnes på The Margarets CD "Love will haunt you down". Teksten er gjengitt med tillatelse fra komponistene.